EVENTS AT THE PALAIS MONTGELAS.

Few buildings can look back on such a rich history as our Palais Montgelas. It inherited its name from a brilliant statesman, whose ideas still influence events in Bavaria. We are talking about Graf Maximilian von Montgelas, who acquired it in 1811. Over the course of centuries it was, among other things, the official residence of the Bavarian State Chancellery, saw the coronation of Maximilian III as well as the secularisation.

In 1969 it became the property of the Volkhardt family and was opened in time for the 1972 Olympic Games.

2020 now marks a new chapter in the history of the Palais Montgelas. With his feel for historic structures, Belgian interior designer and art dealer Axel Vervoordt was able to confer individuality to each of the 14 event rooms and skilfully combine it with the historical character of the Palais. A symbiosis is created between timeless classicism and the designer's modern style which gives the rooms its very special ambience.

Be enchanted by the unique atmosphere and organise your meeting or your event in the historic rooms of our Palais Montgelas. You can find the most suitable packages for this on the reverse side.

We will be happy to organise your conference customised to you and according to your wishes. Our total of 40 banquet and event rooms offer you not only a large selection of architectural styles, but also space for 10 to 2,500 people. We are looking forward to making your wishes come true.
