

CONCIERGE QUESTIONNAIRE TIM EIDINGER

Languages:	German, English
Have worked at Hotel Bayerischer Hof since:	September 2015
Hobbies:	Playing football, watching FC Bayern Munich games live
Favourite restaurants in Munich and why?	The restaurant "Zum Franziskaner" in Perusastrasse. Great quality & friendly service.
Specialities (strengths):	Sporting events
Motto for life:	"No" is not part of my vocabulary!
Personal concierge tip:	The Englischer Garten: There is so much to see here and something new to discover every day. In addition, the beer garden at the Chinese Tower, this is a great place for public viewing events, whether this be football or superbowl.
Why Hotel Bayerischer Hof?:	I did my apprenticeship here, the whole package, the employees & above all the guests ensure that you look forward to work every morning. Sounds bizarre, but that's how it is!
If I were not a concierge, then I would be:	Football commentator
What do most visitors to the hotel or city find surprising?	How very central our hotel is & how much there is to discover in Munich.
Most bizarre wish:	A guest comes up to me and says he has to be in Nice in three hours, could we please arrange a private jet for him.
Most touching experience:	Arranging the marriage proposal for a famous singer.
Experience with animals:	Getting a special breed of dog from Russia for an Arab guest. The guest really wanted this dog. He's had it now for a year and a half.
Funny mishap:	Nothing yet.
Unforgettable experience:	Back then as a trainee, I was able to witness the talks at the security conference. The content and nature of the conversations were fascinating.
