

CONCIERGE QUESTIONNAIRE TOBIAS LINDNER

Languages:	German, English
Have worked at Hotel Bayerischer Hof since:	2012
Hobbies:	Wine, literature, hiking, football (both actively and passively)
Favourite restaurants in Munich and why?	Weinhaus Neuner: The Weinhaus Neuner combines Bavarian cosiness and tradition with culinary delights as well as an extraordinary wine list with fair prices.
Specialities (strengths):	Cuisine & culture
Motto for life:	It is what it is!
Personal concierge tip:	Kabinetts Garten in the Residenz München, right next to the Allerheiligen-Hofkirche, a true oasis of calm in the middle of the city centre and not mentioned in any travel guide.
Why Hotel Bayerischer Hof?:	Bayerischer Hof is an institution in Europe. I was very excited to help shape a piece of history.
If I were not a concierge, then I would be:	Chef or sommelier
What do most visitors to the hotel or city find surprising?	Stand on the right, walk on the left on the escalator!
Most touching experience:	It's touching every time you're on the receiving end of genuine gratitude .
Experience with animals:	Several turtles that we took in as "lost property" because the guest had forgotten the turtles in the bathtub.
Funny mishap:	I once mistook two very famous German actresses and addressed one of the ladies by the other's name. Fortunately, the lady took it with good humour.
Unforgettable experience:	Every day is unforgettable and full of new challenges. That is what defines our job and the hotel.

